The application will be reviewed for completeness and the information included on the application will be used to generate a consumer report. The consumer report will be reviewed by the Landlord prior to approval of tenancy. The consumer report may contain any or all of the following information:

- Scored credit report
- Address history
- Criminal history search
- Sex offender registries search
- Eviction history search
- Verification of current and/or previous rental history
- Verification of employment
- Verification of driver's license status
- Verification of social security number

CREDIT REQUIREMENTS

- Applicants may be denied when money is owed to landlords or utility companies

PRIOR RENTAL REQUIREMENTS

- Positive rental history
- All delinquencies must be paid in full or under $3,000 with a current, active repayment agreement.
- Any applicant that has ever been evicted from a tenancy may be denied.

CRIMINAL HISTORY REQUIREMENTS

- Any applicant may be denied for criminal convictions or falsification of application.

DENIALS AND APPEALS

In the event that your application is denied, or an adverse action is taken, you have the right to obtain a free copy of your report and to dispute the accuracy of the information appearing in the consumer report by contacting ACRAnet.

The consumer report will be generated by ACRAnet, a consumer reporting agency. Contact information for ACRAnet is:
