

SNOHOMISH COUNTY SEEKS RESIDENTS TO SERVE ON ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AFFORDABLE HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Snohomish County is recruiting persons to serve on a technical advisory committee to review applications for projects that benefit low-income persons and neighborhoods in our community. Funding is provided through U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development programs and may be used for affordable housing, public services, and improvements to facilities and infrastructure such as food banks, senior centers, sidewalks, and water/sewer systems.

Eight resident seats are currently open. Representatives from the following groups are needed:

- Two low-income individuals
- Two individuals with disabilities
- Two senior citizens
- Two individuals of racial/ethnic minority

Low-income is defined as follows:

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6
Maximum Annual Income	$56,200	$64,200	$72,250	$80,250	$86,700	$93,100

These volunteer positions provide an opportunity for residents to be involved in the local government process to award funds for projects that improve the lives of low-income residents in our community. Project funding is provided through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development programs and may be used for affordable housing, public services, and improvements to facilities and infrastructure such as food banks, senior centers, sidewalks, and water/sewer systems.

Volunteers are appointed to a three-year term and meet two to three times each year in late fall or early winter. Committee members review application materials outside of the meetings and meet to evaluate projects and recommend funding awards.

Interested individuals are asked to complete a short application with information on their representative group, areas of experience, and reasons for wanting to serve.

The application form is available on-line at: <http://snohomishcountywa.gov/681> or by contacting Felicia Medlen, OHCD Supervisor, Snohomish County Human Services, at Felicia.medlen@snoco.org or (425) 388-7454. Applications must be received by Friday, September 21, 2018. Send completed applications via e-mail or mail to:

Via e-mail: felicia.medlen@snoco.org

Via mail: Snohomish County Human Services
Housing & Community Services Division
3000 Rockefeller Ave. M/S 305
Everett, WA 98201
Attn: Felicia Medlen, OHCD Supervisor